Bassano's Stampede Will Be Held Friday 8th

Big Event Scheduled for First of July Was Postponed Because of the Heat and Bad Roads—Good Crowd is Expected

Friday this week, July 8th, is the new date for the Bassano stampede and sports day. The fall program of events, including the children's sports, parade, stampede, athletic events, carnival, and dance, will be run off. The 2nd Battalion band, of Medicine Hat, will be here.

Decide to Postpone
As it turned out, Friday the 7th was a fine day, and possibly a good crowd would have attended if the sports had been run off. The committee, however, had held a meeting the afternoon previous, and as it had been raining all day with no sign of letting up, and the roads were reported to be in a very bad condition, it was decided to postpone the celebration and hold it on Friday, July 8th.

$100 Prizes
A tug-of-war contest has been added to the sports program, and for this event $100 prize money will be given. The contest is open to all teams, and already teams from Fraser, Glendon, and other points have indicated their intention to enter the competition.

One For Somebody
A new Ford touring car will be given away by the swimming pool committee of the Board of Trade to the holder of the lucky ticket. The draw will be made at the dance in the evening, and somebody is going to hit into a bunch of luck.

Held Dance Last Friday
A dance was put on in the curling rink building last Friday evening, and in spite of the rain that fell early in the evening, the affair was well attended.

A large number of Indians came down from Glendon to take part in the program last Friday, and there were also a number of riders in town that day. Out of consideration for the many who came a long way to compete in the stampede events, it was arranged to put on bucking and roping events the next day, Saturday, July 8th. Saturday was wet and stormy, and the idea had to be abandoned.

Changes in School Teaching Staff For The Commg Year

Two new teachers engaged to fill vacancies left by Mrs. Bell and Miss Smith.

The teaching staff for the Bassano school for the coming term will be: Gordon Foster, principal; R. S. McDonald; Mrs. O. Harley; Miss H. Hickey; Miss V. King. Two teachers of the past term, Mrs. Bell and Miss Smith, tendered their resignations at the meeting of the school board held recently. Mr. Foster, Mr. Harley, and Miss King were re-engaged for another term. To fill the vacancies caused by the resignation of Mrs. Bell and Miss Smith, the board has engaged the services of R. S. McDonald, of Rockyford, and Miss V. King, of Bassano. The school board feel they are fortunate in procuring such an efficient staff of teachers.

A representative of the Russian Soviet government was in Alberta last week arranging for the purchase of 4,000 head of horses.

Reviving the Frontier Days of the West

Calgary's annual "stampede" in the foothills of the Canadian Rockies has for years past attracted many famous artists as the late Charles Russell, and a long list of other artists, poets, writers, as well as frontiersmen like Col. John R. Dennis, who commanded the Dennis Scouts during the Red River rebellion. This big show where the last great west rule Calgary July 10th. The greatest of the kind in North America it has among its patrons the Prince of Wales, whose R.P. Ranch is near at hand, and the Governor-General of Canada. This year Parnell Bill Rogers, famous cowboy, and Edward P. Albee, president of the R.P. Ranch, have donated trophies for the various events through Guy Weddell, originator of the Stampede and Stampede manager. The Stampede starts the first day with the rodeo, and colorful march through the streets at 10 o'clock. After noon the parade includes hundreds of Indians in full war regalia, old timers of the prairies and their Red River carts, members of the famous Royal North West Mounted Police (now Royal Canadian Mounted Police), cowboys and cowgirls, as mascots.

The regular "Stampede" program, run off daily under the direction of Guy Weddell, will include Roman standing races, chuck-waggon races and Indian races, in which squaw and buck ride as if for their lives. The Indian village in Victoria with its gaily painted tepees is colorful and interesting and there are a number of other attractions different from respect to anything seen anywhere in Canada—one of these attractions is the Indian village of the Pacific coast to transport it last year.

Calgary's annual stampede has been rightly described as a living page from the history of the West.

"The Sunset Derby" Crammed With Pep

Crammed with swiftly moving action, interspersed with a delightful vein of light comedy, the picturesque two mile-equestrian horse-race surpassed on the screen for realism, speed and thrills, the First National picture, "The Sunset Derby," showing in the Gem Theatre Friday and Saturday this week, July 8 and 9, is a most entertaining plus.

Mary Astor and William Collier, Jr., as the young lovers, make a delightful team in the featured roles, and both contribute performances which merit the high praise.

Ralph Lewis and Lionel Lincoln, as the lively stable owner and the service station proprietor, contribute the comedy with their good natured business deal, and in addition, add a few scenes which are highly dramatic. David Kirby, Ruth Ross, Henry Barrows, Michael Visaroff, and others are in the supporting cast.

Strawberries Are Ripe At Gem Colony

Many Kinds of Fruits Grown Here Fully Here

GEM, July 6.—Many of our farmers are sampling their own home-grown strawberries. Mrs. Pollock picked and filled one hundred and forty-eight baskets of big ripe strawberries in one picking. Who wouldn't live in Gem where we can grow most kinds of small fruits? We have quite a large growth of strawberries, raspberries, crab apples, and currants of all colors, and cherries, not to mention all kinds of vegetables growing in the colony.

Chutes and corrals will be built in readiness for all the horses, steers, bucking horses, etc., that will be used in the Gem sports program.

An admission price of 50c will be charged for adults, and a smaller charge for children, at the Gem rodeo and sports on July 27th. Cars will be free.

The Sunday evening service held in the Gem school are very well attended.

Our local post master made a short business trip to Calgary last week. Mrs. Hamble accompanied him, paying a long promised visit to Mrs. Poley. Arthur returned with Mrs. Hamble to the Colony to enjoy a holiday on their farm.

The Duchesne sports have been postponed till August 1st.

A few Gentiles were brave enough to get out to Duchesne for the fourth of July and were disappointed to find the picnic had been postponed because of weather conditions.

Rev. Father Arenal with Mr. and Mrs. P. Murphy, Wm. Marshall, and Mr. Millway, were recent Sunday visitors at the Gem.

Mrs. D. Douglas is very proud of her roses. They are blooming beautifully.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller is in charge of the Schreiber farm while the family is on their holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanger are here staying with relatives in the State for several months, returning with her father, C. Marquette, to Gem.

C. Jones and Mrs. Jones were Friday visitors to the Colony, returning to Wilspring Hills in the evening. Eugene returned home with his parents.

The second clip is to take place on Wednesday, July 12th, with P. Williamson, as busy preparing for same.

Bill Pollock is a busy man these days procuring signatures for the wheat pool.

Gem rodeo, sports, and carnival on Wednesday, July 27th. Don't forget the date. This is a community picnic, and everybody in the Colony is expected to do their share and help. Everybody take an interest, and so nothing. We want workers. The committee is doing everything possible to make the rodeo a huge success.

Miss Jahraus, who is engaged as housekeeper on the P. Williamson ranch, will take charge in the course of a couple of days on her arrival from Medicine Hat.

MANY TAKE ADVANTAGE OF TAX DISCOUNT

Collectors Good During the Month of June

Secretary treasurer Jas. R. Donaldson reported at the last meeting of the town council, last Monday evening, July 4, that during the month of June $12,500 in current taxes had been collected. This figure compares very favorably with that of last year. Many taxpayers took advantage of the 10 per cent discount and paid their taxes before July 1, the end of the discount period.

The secretary was instructed to write to each of those in arrears for rent of houses, giving them ten days in which to settle, failing which the matter will be placed in the hands of the solicitor for further action.

Engineer's Report
Engineer Frank Mead tendered his report for the month, which was read and accepted. He was instructed to proceed with the work of the irrigation system as soon as lumber was available for the building of culverts.

Mr. Mead reported that grading of the irrigation system is almost completed. The places where the last culverts were left to be built have been left so that the culverts can be put in immediately the ditch is opened.

He also reported considerable work done on the streets.

THE TOLKIN

And who shall say this man has failed.
Those children know the truth. Who, little known and little hailed. Has sheltered them through youth.
The task by which he earns his bread Perhaps you might not care to read. Yet children wisely taught and led May win the world's acclaim.

A splendid courage is required To toil from day to day When hand and brain are over-tired For just a rate of pay.

The dull monotony of life Seem harder far to bear Than is the thrill of greater strife With glory ending there.

And he who bravely guards his own, From honor never swerve. Though little praised, and little known, Triumphantly has served.

THE WORD

O Earth! thou hast not any wind that blows Which is not music; every weed of thine Pressed rightly flows in aromatic wine; And every humble hedgerow flower that grows, And every little brown bird that doth sing, Hath something greater than itself, and bears A living word to every living thing, Although it holds the message un- aware. All shapes and sounds have something that is not Or them; 'twere spirit-words amid the stars.

Vague outlines of the Everlasting Thought Lie in the melting shadows as they pass; The touch of an eternal presence thrills The fringes of the sunset and the hills.

Red Cross Outposts Performing Signal Service on Frontier

During the past year in the thirty-seven Red Cross outposts in operation in Northern Ontario, Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, and also New Brunswick, 6,820 people were cared for, 1,040 operations, of which 224 were major operations, were performed, 615 children were born, and numerous emergencies were helpful to them. Through the outpost nurses an immense amount of public health work was accomplished; 178 schools were visited; 4,341 children were examined; 5,300 homes were visited to give advice; thousands of women in homes were reached, and 743 mothers, most of whom must otherwise have gone without skilled care when their babies were born, were given every attention, either in their own homes or at the outposts. Since their service was inaugurated, two more outposts have come into existence in outlying sections of northern Ontario, ten more places in the west have requested hospitals, and the Red Cross is making every effort to expand this supremely useful service in pioneering districts, where it has had a very definite effect in rendering settlement safe and hence in the ultimate extension of the empire.

"The well trained nurse is the backbone of public health," said Dr. F. W. Howley, director of the Ontario division of the Red Cross when called to a health conference in the parliament buildings, Toronto, recently. "She is the link between the scientific processes of public health measures and the public which has to use them. Nor should the nursing service be confined to hospitals. It ought to permeate the whole community, and it is as all possible such small emergency hospitals or health centres as the Red Cross outposts ought to exist in every settlement so that the necessary health education might be within reach of all our people."

FARMERS SUPPORTING SUGAR FACTORY
Reports from the southern part of the province indicate that farmers in that section are giving strong support to the beet sugar factory at Raymond. To date some 7,000 acres of beets have been contracted to the factory, and it is expected that fully 200 acres more will be included. A notable feature of this season is the thorough preparation of the soil before planting, with the result that beets are making rapid growth.

Estimate Man's Value

By Earning Power

Insurance Experts Say Every Man Who Works Is Rich

How much is a man worth? The New York jury decided a damage suit brought by the family of a worker, killed in an accident, rendered a verdict of $17,500. The man was 39, earning $2,600 a year.

Opposing counsel claimed that the price tag was much too high. The numbers undoubtedly thought they were making a fair valuation. Yet a scientific study proves that they were way off.

"For at the age of thirty," says Dr. Louis I. Dubin, insurance statistician, "the value of the man, who will earn $2,600 a year, is maximum is approximately $31,000."

"This is taking into consideration the present salary of $2,600, the average gross earnings of men of his age and income class, and allowing about $15,000 for the present worth of his personal expenses during his working period."

Dr. Dehn found that up to his twentieth birthday a boy in his family in the $2,000 annual income class had a certain economic value even before he began to work and earn money. It was the value of the cost of education, which is usually borne by the state or the city, to rear a boy to the age of 18 years. The capitalized value of his net earnings of such a boy was $28,454.

He found that at birth a boy in this class had a value of $9,332, which increased a trifle over a thousand dollars when he reached one year.

In steady gradations his value increased about a thousand dollars each year until his twenty-first birthday it reached $30,518 and at 20, $13,108. At 40 this had declined to $25,275; at 50 to $17,510; at 60 to $8,409 and at 70 to $862.

Opposing counsel claimed that the price tag was much too high. The numbers undoubtedly thought they were making a fair valuation. Yet a scientific study proves that they were way off.

"For at the age of thirty," says Dr. Louis I. Dubin, insurance statistician, "the value of the man, who will earn $2,600 a year, is maximum is approximately $31,000."

"This is taking into consideration the present salary of $2,600, the average gross earnings of men of his age and income class, and allowing about $15,000 for the present worth of his personal expenses during his working period."

Dr. Dehn found that up to his twentieth birthday a boy in his family in the $2,000 annual income class had a certain economic value even before he began to work and earn money. It was the value of the cost of education, which is usually borne by the state or the city, to rear a boy to the age of 18 years. The capitalized value of his net earnings of such a boy was $28,454.

He found that at birth a boy in this class had a value of $9,332, which increased a trifle over a thousand dollars when he reached one year.

In steady gradations his value increased about a thousand dollars each year until his twenty-first birthday it reached $30,518 and at 20, $13,108. At 40 this had declined to $25,275; at 50 to $17,510; at 60 to $8,409 and at 70 to $862.

Dr. Dehn found that no means of estimating the value of the majority of women, since the housewife's economic contribution to the dollar cannot be measured in dollars and cents.

Settlers Brought

Had Million Dollars Says W. C. Robb

"One of the striking features of settlement which has taken place in the west during the spring of this year is the development of the land held by newcomers," stated W. C. Robb, vice-president in charge of colonization of the Canadian National Railway, who, he has been director of that branch of the company's affairs, arrived in Winnipeg from Montreal on June 23rd.

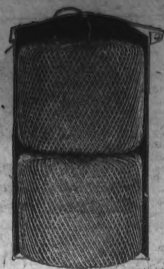

"In the last few months," he estimated that more than a million dollars in ready cash had been in the hands of newcomers reaching Winnipeg and that amount has necessarily increased by those arriving since.
